

Go ahead, make someone's day – send a card their way.

Member Profile Mary Lynne Murray

- Based in Walnut Creek, California, I offer an easy way to be in touch with clients, friends and family.
- I help people enjoy a better quality of life by making gratitude and thankfulness a lifestyle.
- I help people be better organized because Send Out Cards is a contact manager with a reminder system.
- Send Out Cards uses technology to distribute high-touch, personalized greeting cards and gifts. We are not a bulk mailer. Our cards are sent with a first class stamp and do not look like junk mail. They include your handwriting and your signature.
- I provide a tool to act upon promptings (thoughts) by sending uplifting, appreciative greeting cards and gifts. Studies show that most people want to send more cards than they do; they don't because it's inconvenient, too costly, and they forget. Send Out Cards overcomes those obstacles. We are the Netflix of the greeting card industry.
- My business hours are 9:00 – 6:00, Monday through Friday; however, I offer flexible phone appointments in the early morning or evenings and weekends. I can demonstrate Send Out Cards anywhere in the world with a phone line and internet connection. I offer a sample account (www.sendoutcards.com/9919), so folks can check it out without obligation. Sending a card to someone you care about (at my expense) is my gift to you.
- I return phone calls and emails promptly. If I can't help you, I will refer you to someone who can. People tell me all the time that I have great follow up skills. I attend personal development webinars weekly and am connected to several mentors for life-long learning and growth.
- A GOOD referral is a business person who wants to practice Appreciation Marketing. They want to excel at Thank You, and/or remembering clients' birthdays. Good referrals also include folks who send YOU cards; they are already convinced of the benefits of card sending, but may be open to an easier way. Who do you know who sends cards?
- A GREAT referral is an energetic person who loves to help people, enjoys networking and has a dream of becoming financially independent.
